

David Glenn is an Australian garden designer. He has been recognised as an early exponent of Dry Climate Gardening with perennials in Australia. Plants selected by David are grown world-wide.

Lambley Nursery is located in Ascot. This is located 12km north of the Western Freeway, which by-passes Ballarat on the Clunes-Maryborough Road (C287), about halfway between Miners Rest and Clunes.

In the hills of West Gippsland is the Garden at Broughton Hall and Musker's Rare Plant Nursery. The garden was designed by David Musker and celebrated in the book "The Charmed Garden".

Broughton Hall is near Jindivick, and will be open for its autumn season from 5th April to 19th June, Thursdays through Sundays 10 am to 4pm.
